

Park Hill South - PIMB Meeting

Meeting Minutes for 2018-2019

Sept. 10, 2018

Next Meeting: October 8, 2018 6:30PM

I. Board Reports

The PHS PIMB meeting was called to order at 6:30 PM PIMB President Lisa Uhrmacher Introductions were made around the room.

Treasurer's Report stated that we have received 87 PIMB memberships (optional). Over 60 students are still needing to pay PHS partial or full Marching Band fees (required). Emails will continually be sent to collect these fees.

Mr. Gillespie reported that the Marching Band has begun to learn the 3rd movement for the show. PO's came in to purchase prop supplies.

Mr. Boyd reported that 7th grade instrument try-out night was successful and students were handed out assignments today. If you have used instruments you want to sell, let Mr. Boyd know ASAP because students have one week to secure their instruments. 8th grade is working on All-District auditions (November 3 at Liberty HS). Help sessions will be available during intramurals and high school students are encouraged to come help middle school students for A+ hours. Jazz Band has been approved for a trip to Chicago, April 11-14. Fundraising will be important at Capp Night. This year Capp Night will have a headliner - a former PHSD student- and his wife will be featured! Capp Night is scheduled for the Monday before Thanksgiving, Nov 19.

Mrs. Wagoner reported that Campus Band has a couple of seniors in the class and they are working in music for the upcoming concert with Jazz Band, Oct 23. Symphonic Audition sign-ups have been posted. Auditions will take place of Marching Band rehearsal Tues, Sept 18. Judges will be hired for blind auditions. Students are allowed to practice during tutorial, however, students need to obtain passes. Music cuts have been posted on Schoology.

II. Committee Reports

LMS representative- possible fundraisers for the 8th grade Six Flags trip in May - Krissy will check with McDonald's McTeacher Night and Chipotle.

Hospitality: Kristin Harris and Mylinda Scott are co-chairing. Symphonic Auditions will need food for the helpers/judges at from 5-5:45. Auditions will occur from 6-9:15PM. Hospitality will also need to plan for pizza in Springfield for the upcoming Festival.

Uniforms: Mary Jane Stone is chairing. This Friday is the first football game performance in full uniform - bins will be available to help with missing pieces. Students should wear their white show shirt and shorts underneath bibbers.

Concert Clothing Collections: Kim Close (Matheson) will be collecting and maintaining a bin for extra "black on black" concert attire. Collections will be available during parent\teacher conferences. Donations of black long sleeve shirts, pants and shoes would be appreciated to help with last minute support of students needing help with clothing.

PHSD Marching Festival: Tom Harris is chairing this large event scheduled for Saturday Oct 13. Job responsibilities will be split between PHHS and PHS. PHS is scheduled to perform at 9PM as an exhibition band. Volunteer sign-ups will be sent out soon - one for parents, one for students to volunteer to help earn lettering hours. PHS volunteer hours will be in the morning/early afternoon. The festival has grown and now includes a "finals format" so each band will have an opportunity to perform twice. The festival will be approximately 10 hours long.

Senior Night: Kelly Henry is chairing. Senior night is Oct. 19. Seniors and their parents (Band, Guard and Cheer) will be honored pre-game at the football game (Football players will be honored at halftime). A gift, flowers and senior boards will need to be organized. Mrs. Wagoner will discuss with seniors their desire for senior boards - each family is responsible for their own board. There are 27 seniors this year.

Capp Night: Dawn Cornelius and Krissy Ringo will co-chair. Capp Night is a Jazz Band event and fundraiser. It is scheduled for Monday, Nov 19. Sub-committees include: setup/cleanup, fundraisers, dessert bar/capp/coffee, fedora sales, programs, and table reservations.

Spirit Signs: Will be set out the week of All District Auditions.

Marching Props: Tom Breshears is heading up props. He is working with others to build 5 "Merchant boxes". Fabric is being collected by Katie Ervin for decorating the drum major towers.
